

WEB SITE USAGE POLICY AND PRIVACY STATEMENT

Planet Futsal recognizes and supports the need to protect the privacy rights of our Web site visitors through disclosure of our practices regarding the collection and use of information. The information contained in our web pages is subject to change. Planet Futsal reserves the right to change any information without notification.

Web Privacy - We respect your right to privacy. Information collected by Planet Futsal is used strictly by us. Planet Futsal does not share its mailing or e mail list with third parties. We may, from time to time, send you information pertinent to your membership or activities at Planet Futsal. Information from a third party may be included; however, the third party will not have access to your information.

Public Information - Some of our web pages are published for members and non-members to use in the public domain. These informational pages are provided to help facilitate and develop Planet Futsal related activities. This information is not intended for any other use. Outside third parties may not use this information for commercial, public or private purposes beyond this intent. Planet Futsal is not responsible for the content or how this information is used by others.

Limitations - The information in these Web pages is intended for Planet Futsal members and potential members. The information is provided "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED. In no event shall Planet Futsal be liable to any person for any special, indirect or consequential damages relating to this material.
